

Wednesday, November 3, 2021

3:30 PM – 4:45 PM

Peer to Peer 2

“Not Now; I’m on a Zoom Call!”
Multi-Jurisdictional Practice in a Virtual World

Desmond D. (“Des”) Connall, Jr.

Senior Counsel
Ballard Spahr LLP
300 East Lombard Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21202
connalld@ballardspahr.com

Nancy R. Little

Partner
McGuireWoods LLP
800 East Canal Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219
nlittle@mcguirewoods.com

Part One: Overview of Multi-Jurisdictional Practice

- I. Introduction
- II. ABA Model Rule 5.5 of the Rules of Professional Conduct
- III. Restatement of Law Provisions
- IV. The Leading Case -- Birbrower

Part Two: Virtual Practice

- I. Impact of COVID-19: More Lawyers Working Remotely
- II. Formal ABA Opinions on the Virtual Practice of Law
- III. States and Commentators Provide Some Guidance on Working Remotely

Part Three: Considerations for In-House Counsel

- I. What Are the Rules That Apply to In-House Counsel?
- II. The Model Rules
- III. The Restatement Position
- IV. Limitations on In-House Counsel Legal Services
- V. Rules Vary by State; Caveat to In-House Counsel: Check the Rules.