

Thursday, November 4, 2021
11:00 AM – 12:15 PM

Workshop 13

Privacy and Data Security: E-Notaries, E-Closings and E-evolving state laws

Gary A. Kibel

Partner
Davis+Gilbert LLP
1675 Broadway
New York, NY 10019
gkibel@dglaw.com

Orlando Lucero

Vice-President/New Mexico State
Underwriting Counsel/Back-Up
State Counsel Oklahoma
FNF Family of Companies
8500 Menaul Blvd. NE, Suite A110
Albuquerque, NM 87112
Orlando.Lucero@fnf.com

- I. eClosings and Ethical Implications
 - A. What is an eClosing?
 - 1. Traditional Closing
 - 2. Hybrid eClosing
 - 3. eClosing
 - 4. Online eClosing
 - B. The Lawyer's Role in the eClosing
 - C. Ethical Rules Implicated in an eClosing
 - 1. The Duty of Competence
 - 2. The Duty of Confidentiality
 - 3. The Duty to Communicate
 - D. What These Principles Mean for Lawyers in eClosings
 - 1. Recommendations
- II. Privacy and data security: E-evolving state laws
 - A. Apple Makes Big Changes to Its Tracking System
 - B. Virginia Becomes the Second State to Pass a Comprehensive Privacy Law
 - C. Don't Smile at the Camera - New Biometric Data Laws