The Arizona Biltmore Golf Club is host to two different style golf courses: Adobe and Links. Adobe Course: The par 71, 6,430 yard Adobe is a true parkland course that treats its patrons to generous, sprawling fairways, while challenging them with numerous, hungry bunkers. Set against the backdrop of the picturesque Phoenix Mountain Preserve and the far-reaching southern skyline of downtown Phoenix, the Adobe provides views as breathtaking as the course itself. Links Course: The par 71, 6,300 yard course provides rolling fairways, desert ravines and five shimmering lakes. A combination of challenging desert golf mixed with cool pines and tranquil lakes, The Links Course is a bit rambunctious, providing both delights and demands for even the most seasoned player.
